

Dear Parents,

I wanted to make sure that you knew that we begin Catholic School's Week on Sunday, January 28th of this next week at Annunciation. All across the nation schools come together to celebrate the incredible education that students receive in Catholic Schools from Pre-K to Senior year! This year we have a myriad of special activities planned by our incredible Home and School Board meant to delight our students!

Every day the children will find out what is planned for the next day and let me tell you- there are some doozies! It promises to be a wonderful week for all! Please ask your children what is planned for the next day and the teachers will keep you informed as well! In addition, it is our intent that this week you should not have to go out and buy anything to go with the themes. The week is all just good fun and using what they have in their homes to meet what the "dress up" day is for the day!

We close the week on Friday, February 2nd with a special game where the teachers play the 8th graders in volleyball! Warm thanks in advance to our whole Home and School Board for their efforts to pull this exciting week together! The Home and School Board is led by Mrs. Kelli Berka. She has a cast of wonderful moms and dads behind her to help make the week exciting! Stay tuned for updates and fun pictures of our students throughout the week!

Warmly,

Mrs. DeMar
